NSNZ-FONS COMBINED CONFERENCE 2026

Jointly hosted by the Nutrition Society of New Zealand (NSNZ) and the Federation of Oceanic Nutrition Societies (FONS), this landmark conference brings together researchers, practitioners, policy makers, community leaders, and students from across Oceania and beyond.

On behalf of both organisations we invite you to partner with us for this first ever Oceania-wide nutrition conference.

For three days, we will gather in Fiji to advance nutrition science and translate knowledge into practice and policy across Oceania. This provides a unique regional forum for sharing nutrition science, strengthening collaboration and community impact.

The Sheraton Golf and Beach Resort in Denarau not only provides a beautiful tropical background for the conference, but also increases accessibility for our Pacific Island members and policy makers.

Yours sincerely,
